Amazon: May 16-20, 4 days

Sacred Valley: May 20-28, 8 days

Amazon Section

May 16: Day 0 - Arrival in Peru

Fly on your own to Lima, Peru. Depending on your arrival time, you may choose to transfer to a hotel for rest.

May 17:

Day 1 - Amazon

Take a morning flight to Puerto Maldonado where you meet our group, and take a two-hour trip by motorized canoe down the Madre de Dios River to our lodge in the heart of the Tambopata Nature Reserve. Free afternoon to explore the surrounding rainforest or just relax in a hammock or by the pool. Opening evening ceremonies.

Lunch and dinner included.

May 18:

Day 2 - Amazon

Unwind from the Western pace through meditation and activities at EcoAmazonia. For a remarkable and entertaining adventure, visit Monkey Island with a chance to observe and feed wild monkeys. Afternoon talk introducing key principles of Peruvian spirituality. Opportunity to participate in mystical evening ceremonies with a masterful jungle shaman.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner included.

May 19:

Day 3 - Amazon

Guided by a local naturalist, explore the Tambopata jungle, observe wildlife, and learn about medicinal plants and ceremonial customs. Motorized canoe adventure to explore the Gamitama river. Opportunity to participate in mystical evening ceremonies with a renowned jungle shaman.

Breakfast, lunch, and dinner included.

May 20:

Day 4 - Return to Cusco

Late morning return by boat and plane to Cusco. Amazon section ends upon arrival to Cusco airport. Participants continuing to the Sacred Valley section will travel by bus to old Cusco for free time to have lunch, shop and explore. Breakfast included.

Sacred Valley Section

May 20:

Day 4 - Afternoon in Cusco

New participants joining us for the Sacred Valley section meet together in Cusco. Afternoon bus to Willka T'ika, our exquisite garden retreat in Urubamba. Willka T'ika, or sacred flower in the Quechua language, is an oasis created specifically for reflection and healing, with soul-soothing accommodations and exceptional vegetarian meals from Willka T'ika's own organic fields. There will be an opportunity to enjoy its lush sacred gardens, soak under the stars in the hot floral baths, or schedule a massage or crystal bath treatment. Dinner included.

May 21:

Day 5 - Moray & Despacho

Morning visit to Moray, the ancient Inka crop-laboratory, for meditation. Afternoon unguided time to relax and reflect in Willka T'ika's wonderful gardens, hike to the nearby salt mines of Maras, or visit Urubamba and the outstanding Seminario Ceramics. Evening despacho ceremony with Q'ero shaman from the high Andean mountains.

Breakfast and dinner included.

May 22:

Day 6 - Ollantaytambo

Travel to Ollantaytambo to explore a mountainside of archaeological sites and their impressive wisdom teachings. Expect the unexpected as we are fortunate to experience Peru through the eyes and good humor of our master shaman and teacher, Puma Fredy Quispe Singona. Opportunity to participate in mystical ceremony.

Breakfast and dinner included.

May 23:

Day 7 - Písaq, Temple of the Falcon

Travel to Písaq for a visit to the Temple of the Falcon and the Condor Mountain with its breathtaking views of the Urubamba river, cliff-hugging footpaths and gracefully curved terraces. Meditation, ceremony and teaching with Jhaimy.

Breakfast and dinner included.

May 24:

Day 8 - Sacsaywaman, Temples of the Moon and Heart

Ceremonies have moments of peak experience. Journeys have their point of deepest penetration into the self. This is that day for us. There are no limits to the depth with which you can meet yourself as Jhaimy introduces us to viscerally powerful, hidden treasures among Sacsaywaman, Temple of the Moon and Temple of the Heart. Opportunity to participate in mystical ceremony.

Breakfast, snack lunch and dinner included.

May 25:

Day 9 - Tipon

Travel to the sacred water temple of Tipon. Let go, heal and celebrate our transformational journey! Participate in a despacho ceremony and flower blessings with master shaman Don Bernave, followed by a snack lunch among the ancient terraces and outstanding view.

Breakfast, snack lunch and dinner included.

May 26:

Day 10 - Machu Picchu

Travel by early morning train from Urubamba to spend a day at the famed Inca citadel of Machu Picchu, an unforgettable harmonization of architecture, sacred geometry, and the surrounding pinnacled landscape. Tour the highlights of Machu Picchu with ample time to explore and experience the mountaintop city. Evening train back to our home, Willka T'ika.

Breakfast, snack lunch and dinner included.

May 27:

Day 11 - Markets and Llamas

Travel to Písaq for a morning visit to its famous open market, and to an esoteric store, Inti Wayra. Visit Awana Kancha, source of perhaps the finest Alpaca textiles in Peru. Feed, pet and photograph adorable llamas and alpacas. Visit the Andean Magic Art gallery of shamanic artist Don Victor Estrada and his award winning sacred jewelry. Don Victor recovers thousand-year-old ancestral techniques and infuses each piece with shamanic alchemy. Share a farewell dinner in our favorite local restaurant.

Breakfast and dinner included.

May 28:

Day 12 - Fly Home

Transfer to the airport for your morning flights to Lima and the USA.

Please note the itinerary is subject to change. As shamans say, we make our plans but the cosmos may have other plans. In the spirit of adventure and synchronicity, we leave room in our schedule and our hearts for changes that benefit the group.
